Experiment with song structure using a simple Riff-based workflow

Riffs with up to 24 layers each break up recording into bite-sized pieces

7 high-quality effects to choose from such as Chorus, Phaser, Flanger and high-quality reverb

■ Guitar friendly recording software to create entire songs with an easy to use Riff-based workflow that encourages experimentation with song structure

■ InstantDrummer is always ready to jam with professionally recorded drums from top content providers

■ Includes 7 studio quality effects plus AmpliTube LE

■ Instantly podcast to an enthusiastic community of musicians

With RiffWorks you can record efficiently, stay creative, produce high-quality songs, jam online, and podcast your tunes without ever putting down your guitar.

Junt lets you set the tempo and trigger recording just by strumming your guitar

Loop recording can be controlled independently for full flexibility over the control of the sounds

7 effects per layer can be added to Riffs, Backups, Layers and to the input

Guitar recording made fun

Capture ideas at the moment of inspiration. Set a tempo and start recording by strumming your guitar. Experiment with song structure using a simple Riff-based workflow that records bite-sized pieces and encourages experimentation with song structure. Tracks are created automatically as you play. Record multiple takes or layer parts without stopping the creative flow. There are no wave editors or sequencers in RiffWorks, instead the interface will inspire you to create songs using a familiar "real-world" interface - it looks like gear! RiffWorks is easy and fun to use because the focus is on playing, not engineering. Record efficiently, stay creative, produce high-quality songs, jam online, and podcast your tunes without ever putting down your guitar. RiffWorks is the most guitarist-friendly recording software ever!
